Team Application Day August 10, 2006

Teams will have the opportunity of using a comprehensive model to address the complex needs of individuals with Autism Spectrum Disorder.

No single solution is adequate to resolve the broad range of needs of individuals with ASD. Therefore, team members will participate in training under a comprehensive model that incorporates a variety of interventions and that can be implemented by multiple caregivers across various settings.

OCALI is asking for team applications to be sent in by June 2. Teams will be notified of their acceptance by June 9. The information that OCALI needs for the team application day is due by June 30.

2006 Autism Institute

The 2006 Autism Institute is a three-day conference sponsored by the Ohio Center for Autism and Low Incidence (OCALI) and the Ohio Department of Education, Office for Exceptional Children. The goal of the 2006 Autism Institute is to provide an understanding of comprehensive programming, incorporating various methodologies, and instructional techniques to those living with and/or working with persons with Autism Spectrum Disorders.

Professional Development Contact Hours

OCALI is affiliated with the Alliance of Central Ohio Professional Development Providers. The Professional Development Contact Hours certificates will be available at the conclusion of the conference on August 9, 2006.

Must attend both days of the institute to receive PDCHs.

Continuing Education Credits

The cost for the tuition and registration for the one hour of graduate credit offered through Bowling Green State University (BGSU) is $313.00. Participants who are interested are to pay at the conference with a check or money order made payable to Bowling Green State University (BGSU). To receive credit, participants must attend both days and discuss other details with the BGSU representative.
