

Crosswalk Table Summarizing Veterans' Pathway to Licensure
June 2014

License Type	General Requirements¹
Licensed Audiologist	Completion of advanced audiology education program, e.g., Au.D. degree <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Ohio audiology education programs are required to establish policies for review of military education and training. • Ohio audiology education programs are required to award the student credit for any military education or skills training that are substantially similar to the curriculum established in rule. (Rule 4753-3-04). PRAXIS Exam – Educational Testing Service <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • The PRAXIS Exam in Audiology is administered by the Educational Testing Service. The PRAXIS exam, required for audiology licensure, is on the Department of Veterans Affairs qualified list of non-federal government licensure and certification examinations, allowing eligible veterans and their dependents to be reimbursed for the cost of the test. Fee Exemption <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Exemption being sought under Board rule for relicensure fees and late fees if the licensee did not renew a license because they were engaged in military service or a spouse whose absence was required due to the military service. Board rule anticipated by December 31, 2014. Prioritizing Application Process for Military Personnel <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Military applicants have an option to indicate their military status on the application and thereby have their application prioritized for processing.

¹ See Chapter 4753, Ohio Revised Code and Chapters 4753-1 through 4753-12, Ohio Administrative Code, for complete requirements of the Speech-Language Pathology and Audiology Practice Act and the administrative rules.

Licensed Speech-Language Pathologist	Completion of graduate level speech-language pathology education program, e.g., master’s degree in speech-language pathology or communication science and disorders <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Ohio speech-language pathology education programs are required to establish policies for review of military education and training. • Ohio speech-language pathology education programs are required to award the student credit for any military education or skills training that are substantially similar to the curriculum established in rule. (Rule 4753-3-04). PRAXIS Exam – Educational Testing Service <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • The PRAXIS Exam in Speech-Language Pathology is administered by the Educational Testing Service. The PRAXIS exam, required for speech-language pathology licensure, is on the Department of Veterans Affairs qualified list of non-federal government licensure and certification examinations, allowing eligible veterans and their dependents to be reimbursed for the cost of the test. Fee Exemption <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Exemption being sought under Board rule for relicensure fees and late fees if the licensee did not renew a license because they were engaged in military service or a spouse whose absence was required due to the military service. Board rule anticipated by December 31, 2014. Prioritizing Application Process for Military Personnel <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Military applicants have an option to indicate their military status on the application and thereby have their application prioritized for processing.
Licensed Conditional Speech-Language Pathologist	Completion of graduate level speech-language pathology education program, e.g., master’s degree in speech-language pathology or communication science and disorders <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Ohio speech-language pathology education programs are required to establish policies for review of military education and training. • Ohio speech-language pathology education programs are required to award the student credit for any military education or skills training that are

	substantially similar to the curriculum established in rule. (Rule 4753-3-04). PRAXIS Exam – Educational Testing Service <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • The PRAXIS Exam in Speech-Language Pathology is administered by the Educational Testing Service. The PRAXIS exam, required for speech-language pathology licensure, is on the Department of Veterans Affairs qualified list of non-federal government licensure and certification examinations, allowing eligible veterans and their dependents to be reimbursed for the cost of the test. Fee Exemption <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Exemption being sought under Board rule for relicensure fees and late fees if the licensee did not renew a license because they were engaged in military service or a spouse whose absence was required due to the military service. Board rule anticipated by December 31, 2014. Prioritizing Application Process for Military Personnel <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Military applicants have an option to indicate their military status on the application and thereby have their application prioritized for processing.
Licensed Audiology Aide	Education <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Completion of high school diploma or equivalent Training <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Audiology Aides are trained by a licensed audiologist approved by the Board as the supervisor of record. Training is determined by the licensed audiologist and commensurate with the Board approved duties assigned. Aide applicants are encouraged to list any skills, education, or training acquired in the military for the Board’s consideration in approval of the Aide Plan. Fee Exemption <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Exemption being sought under Board rule for relicensure fees and late fees if the licensee did not renew a license because they were engaged in military service or a spouse whose absence was required due to the military service. Board rule anticipated by December 31, 2014.

	Prioritizing Application Process for Military Personnel <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Military applicants have an option to indicate their military status on the application and thereby have their application prioritized for processing.
Licensed Speech-Language Pathology Aide	Education <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Completion of high school diploma or equivalent Training <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Speech-Language Pathology Aides are trained by a licensed speech-language pathologist approved by the Board as the supervisor of record. Training is determined by the licensed speech-language pathologist and commensurate with the Board approved duties assigned. Aide applicants are encouraged to list any skills, education, or training acquired in the military for the Board’s consideration in approval of the Aide Plan. Fee Exemption <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Exemption being sought under Board rule for relicensure fees and late fees if the licensee did not renew a license because they were engaged in military service or a spouse whose absence was required due to the military service. Board rule anticipated by December 31, 2014. Prioritizing Application Process for Military Personnel <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Military applicants have an option to indicate their military status on the application and thereby have their application prioritized for processing.